By train

Oxford station is situated to the south west of the city centre. From here, you can take the 500 bus (see below). Oxford Parkway station is located one mile from the office. From this station, you can also take the 500 bus or follow the footpath to the main road and walk south (see below)

By bus

From Heathrow or Gatwick

From the central coach station at either airport, there are regular services to and from Oxford.

The coaches arrive in the city centre at Gloucester Green Bus Station. There is a bus stop for the 500 just outside this station, or you can walk east for a few minutes to Magdalen Street for more buses (see below).

From the city centre

From the city centre, at Magdalen Street, you can take either a 2, 2A, 2B, 2C, 2D, S5 or 500. Ask for a ticket to Harefields. The journey takes approximately 15 minutes. Once you reach the stop, cross the road and head back towards the roundabout. Go down Harefields, which will be on your left. As you walk down Harefields, you will see a sign for The Myers-Briggs Company on your right. Come through the metal gates and follow the drive round to the right. The main entrance is at the front of the building, overlooking the bypass.
